

House Resolution No. 56

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives of Show-Me State residents who have been blessed with exceptional longevity and impressive commitment to their local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, Georgia Washington Case was born on February 22, 1914, in Olive, Missouri, into the loving union of Walter Harvey Case and Dura Estel Davison Case; and

Whereas, after a childhood filled with diverse educational and character-building experiences, Georgia began a family of her own through her marriage to John Day McCall, now deceased; and

Whereas, Georgia and John McCall joyfully embraced a wonderful family which has grown to include six children, Jo Jean Johnson, Bobby Hoover McCall (deceased), Terry Bill McCall, Nancy Kay McCall Collett, Mary Jane McCall Mottesheard, and Susan Day McCall; sixteen grandchildren; twenty-two great-grandchildren; and three great-great-grandchildren; and

Whereas, family matriarch, former teacher, and homemaker extraordinaire, Georgia McCall has earned and maintained an excellent reputation as a lifelong member of Elkland Christian Church, Sunday School teacher for more than fifty years, longtime member and officer of the Elkland P.T.A., member of the Webco Custom Industries Board and the Library Board, and Elkland Ladies Aid member and quilter; and

Whereas, Georgia's other remarkable achievements include winning a Smile Contest in 1931 and baking more than 15,000 loaves of bread since 1952; and

Whereas, Georgia McCall will mark the beginning of her ninth decade of life on February 22, 2004, during a festive gathering of well-wishers at the Elkland Christian Church:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the stellar accomplishments realized by Georgia McCall over the years and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt congratulations and best wishes as she celebrates her Ninetieth Birthday on February 22, 2004; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Georgia Washington Case McCall, as an expression of our esteem for her and her long life.
